DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASS.

Harriet Menezes,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Association of Flight Attendants, et al and United Airlines, Inc., et al.

Defendants

) CIVIL ACTION

) Case No.:

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

1. I respectfully request appointment of counsel to proceed in my case, pro bono, 28 USC sec. 1915.

2. There is complexity of joinder and jurisdiction beyond my understanding (Fed R Civ. P 23.2 Actions Relating to Unincorporated Associations). Thus, I submit two related claims: a Federal Question for Massachusetts defendants and the union; and Federal Diversity for United Airlines incorporation, and members of the union out of state.

3. My current income is $740/month, and $370/month from a life insurance policy that may cancel pending my ability to work.

4. I have attempted to secure legal counsel as follows: I have contacted the National Labor Relations Board (November 22, 2003 charge removed), the

1 National Mediation Board, the various U.S. Department of Labor, and office
2 of the Attorney General.

3 5. The American Bar Association, Massachusetts Bar Association, Middlesex
4 County Bar Association, and Board of Bar Overseers.

5 6. The Lawyers Guild; Legal Advocacy & Resource Center; the Volunteer Lawyers
6 project, and the Greater Boston Legal Services.

7 7. The Boston Bar Association referred me to reduced fee #67203 Attorney
8 Scott Adams, and #67448 reduced fee to Robert Thomas who I have not been 9 able to afford to talk to.

10 8. Law school clinics and labor law professors in Boston (Prof. Marc 11 Greenbaum of Suffolk; Prof. Richard Zaiger of Boston College).

12 9. The National Right to Work Legal Defense Foundation, Inc. rejected case.

13 10. The American Civil Liberties Union, Michael Avitzur (November, 2003).

14 11. Labor Arbitration NE, Roger Abrams.

15 12. Massachusetts office on disability; EEOC office; ADA hotline; and the 16 Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination.

17 13. Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (July, 2003).

18 14. Catholic Charities for Boston College Law School support.
